Wales

Aside from the incredible opportunities which Snowdonia presents, Wales provides beautiful beaches and coastlines which are perfect for laid back family holidays, or for unwinding after a more active trip.

Also not to be missed are the castles which demonstrate Wales' hugely interesting history as a hotly contested area.

South Wales, home to stunning beaches, beautiful countryside and Cardiff, the capital city of Wales, is a perfect place to go on holiday, whether you're looking for a family friendly destination, a romantic getaway, or breath-taking scenery for a walking trip. There's plenty to do outside of the cities as well though; the coastline is incredible, with miles of beaches to choose from, perfect for those with a love of the great outdoors, and the Welsh valleys provide an interesting glimpse into social history.

Scotland

Scotland is famed for its rugged and awe inspiring beauty; with striking highlands, stunning lochs, and rivers, as well as historic cities there's much to see.

With spectacular sea views, rolling hills, hidden lochs and all round natural splendour, Scotland is perfect for romantic retreats, family holidays, and activity trips for young and old.

Any holiday in this area should include a trip to the capital city of Edinburgh; with great shopping, and fantastic cultural and historic offerings such as Arthur's Seat and Edinburgh Castle. Glasgow is also ideal for any urban adventurers; boasting the likes of the Scottish Opera and Ballet, as well as the National Theatre, and historic Dundee and Inverness are well worth a visit too. There's plenty to do to ensure a great holiday - Scotland really does have something for everyone.

Aberlour Gardens Caravan and Camping Park

Holiday Park • Moray, Highlands

Aberlour Gardens Caravan Park is in a beautiful peaceful location within a Victorian walled garden in the spectacular Speyside area, where red squirrels and buzzard sightings are a regular occurrence.

Aberlour, with its distillery, waterfall and selection of eateries is a delightful 30 minute walk along the River Spey, which offers magnificent salmon fishing (licence available locally).

As the park is at the centre of the Whisky Trail there are many famous distilleries to visit, most of which offer tours and 'a wee dram' to visitors - some within walking distance. Alternatively you may prefer to visit Cairngorm National Park, the stunning beaches with dolphin watching, one of the many castles or various other visitor attractions in the area.

Features

- Small children's play area
- NEW Wood Spirit Trail
- Great location for watching birds & red squirrels
- Small on-site shop/Traidcraft stockists
- Bike hire on site
- Sheltered peaceful location
- Separate camping area
- Laundry with hot drinks vending machine
- Seasonal pitches available
- Beautiful local walks from park
